01:00:27	Anne Emerson	Gloria Satterfield was the Murdaugh housekeeper. Gloria saw the Murdaughs as part of her extended family. So, when Alex came up to the boys at the funeral of their mother and said, "I'm gonna pay you through my insurance because your mother died on my property." They believed him. They trusted him implicitly, that he was going to do the right thing by them. In 2019, when the boys find out that there's a settlement of over half a million dollars, they were shocked.

01:01:05	Drew Tripp	Gloria's sons they know nothing about it.
01:01:09	Anne Emerson	To understand the full picture here, we have to go back in time. In 2015, six years before the double murders of Paul and Maggie Murdaugh, Alex allegedly opened a bank account with Bank of America, and it was called Forge. Forge is also the name of a very legitimate group that handles these kind of settlement claims.
01:01:12		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: Date rolling back to 2015.
01:01:36		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: FORGE

		CONSULTING, LLC
01:01:38	Michael Virzi	Forge Consulting is a settlement funding company out of Atlanta. It's for people who are coming into large settlements. It manages your money for you, in a sense, by doling out money in small amounts over time rather than giving you a lump sum of money.
01:01:45		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: MICHAEL VIRZI Attorney, Legal Ethics Expert
01:01:50		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: Graphic showing text of Forge's website.
01:01:53	Anne Emerson	So, any lawyer that hears the name Forge is gonna immediately identify with Forge consulting.
01:02:01		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: PAY TO THE FORGE ORDER OF
01:02:02	Michael Virzi	That made it look as though the settlement went through Forge Consulting in a legitimate settlement funding annuity <SNIFFS> but instead, that was his personal bank account.
01:02:14		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: Date rolling forwards to 2018.
01:02:17	Drew Tripp	So, after Gloria dies in 2018, Alex Murdaugh approaches Gloria's sons and pitches them an idea to sue him so that they can get wrongful death settlement money on her behalf and be taken care of financially.
01:02:21		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: DREW TRIPP Investigative Producer WCIV TV
01:02:37	Michael Virzi	Alex did, in fact, represent them in the lawsuit against himself. It's ethically impermissible, but it's not physically impossible. He did it with co-counsel Corey Fleming.

01:02:50	Michael Virzi	They agreed to be represented by Corey and Alex.
01:02:56	Gregg Roman	But Alex did not make known to Tony Satterfield that this was someone who he had been close to for the better part of three decades.
01:03:01		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: GREGG ROMAN Investigative Journalist
01:03:07	Michael Virzi	And, instead of being loyal to his clients and making sure that Brian and Tony were taken care of, he apparently did whatever Alex told him to do.
01:03:18	Michael Virzi	Corey Fleming came to them and said, "This is complicated stuff. Let's get a businessperson involved. Let's get someone else to represent your mother's estate." Because somebody has to go in front of the judge and say this is okay.
01:03:35	Anne Emerson	And the boys say, "Yes, of course, if we need to have a personal representative, we'll have a personal representative." So we introduce a new character to this whole scenario and that's a man named Chad Westendorf. He's the vice president at the Palmetto State Bank. He's a very powerful man in a powerful position. Once Chad Westendorf is the personal representative, he does not have to talk to the boys anymore about what's going on with the settlement money.
01:04:05	Anne Emerson	That's the last the boys hear about where that money actually is.
01:04:15	Anne Emerson	Within twenty-four hours of Chad Westendorf taking on this new role, Corey Fleming files the first claim against Alex Murdaugh for $505,000 but there were two insurance settlements that happened.

		Westendorf for the settlement of $505,000.
01:04:31	Michael Virzi	So, the first settlement approval was the $505,000 and then Murdaugh also had another policy
01:04:40	Anne Emerson	And that money is a substantial amount. It's 3.8 million dollars.
01:04:47	Michael Virzi	Both of the insurance companies paid a total of 4.3 million dollars.
01:04:54	Michael Virzi	And by bringing Chad Westendorf in, they were able to keep it from the Satterfields.
01:05:00		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: Graphic showing who the payments were authorized by for the settlements.
01:05:00	Anne Emerson	Once it's passed through Chad Westendorf, Corey Fleming, within this Forge bank account, it ends up in the hands of Alex Murdaugh Chad Westendorf and Corey Fleming say they had no party to this whole alleged scheme to defraud the Satterfields. Each says that he's a pawn of Alex Murdaugh.
01:05:26	Michael Virzi	The Satterfields didn't know until years later that there was any settlement at all. They learned about the first part of the settlement, the $500,000, when it was reported by a local reporter who was looking into the boat crash.

01:05:56	Michael Virzi	There's gonna be a paper trail when it comes to money. There were checks and when checks are deposited there's ink on the back that says exactly what bank account it went to, and those records exist, and those records are discoverable, right? You can always find where the money went.

01:06:14	Gregg Roman	Tony Satterfield, because of the unsolved death of his mother, still does not know what actually happened on that day. The only thing he knows is he was robbed by Alex Murdaugh, an attorney, who was supposed to represent his interests.
01:06:28	Linda Hiers	After Maggie and Paul were murdered, when everything came out of Alex doing what he did to Tony and Brian, I was in disbelief. He's always been like family. And I just couldn't believe that he did this to these boys. To this day, I still can't believe it.
01:06:51		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: Graphic showing various amounts that were paid to the Forge account in Alex Murdaugh's name.
01:06:51	Michael Virzi	Seeing that name Forge and realizing what he had done, the first thing some of us thought was this can't be the first time, right? Is there more? Are there more victims out here?

01:07:14	Michael Virzi	You can hide financial crimes for a while but you get that one drop of sugar in the glass, and the evidence is gonna be there to make the rest of it fall to the bottom.

01:07:53	Michael Virzi	It appears that he had spent years and years defrauding people. And so, we're starting to see a lot of these people starting come out of the woodwork.

01:08:05	Anne Emerson	One of the more heartbreaking cases to emerge after the revelations of the Satterfields was Lieutenant Tommy Moore, a state highway patrol trooper for South Carolina who was involved in a terrible accident on the job. This was three years before the murders of Maggie and Paul Murdaugh. The accident happened during what we called Snowmageddon down here. It probably snows once in a blue moon. A major snowstorm for

01:09:22	Thomas Moore	I had an extreme amount of pain in my neck and it basically felt like I was being shocked with an electric current.
01:09:31	Anne Emerson	After the accident, the doctors diagnose him with a sprained neck. So, he gets treated for that, but the pain never really goes away and workmen's comp is just diagnosing and treating a sprained neck.
01:09:51	Thomas Moore	Things were not getting better they were getting worse. It just felt like a hopeless situation.

01:09:58	Anne Emerson	Trooper Moore had to do something, so he paid out of pocket and went and saw a doctor for himself and what he discovers is that it's not just a sprained neck.
01:10:09	Thomas Moore	I had some fractures, and that I needed surgery basically now. the workmen's comp denied my claim and that they were not paying for surgery, and so I knew, you know, at that point somebody's got to pay the bills, nobody is gonna do it for free.

01:10:18		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: January 9, 2022 WCIV-TV THOMAS MOORE South Carolina Highway Patrol
01:10:26	Anne Emerson	Trooper Moore could not afford to just take on that kind of expense. He needed a lawyer and he says that a friend of his pointed him toward Alex Murdaugh.
01:10:37	Thomas Moore	He was confident I had a case. He was confident that everything would be okay in the end.
01:10:41		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: January 9, 2022 WCIV-TV THOMAS MOORE South Carolina Highway Patrol

01:10:44	Anne Emerson	One of the things Trooper Moore said to me was he trusted Alex Murdaugh implicitly. There was never any doubt in his mind, he said, that Alex Murdaugh would do the right thing.
01:10:58	Thomas Moore	I had neck surgery after that. It was well over $250,000 to my understanding.
01:11:03		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: January 9, 2022 WCIV-TV THOMAS MOORE South Carolina Highway Patrol
01:11:10	Anne Emerson	Meanwhile, Alex Murdaugh is filing claims on behalf of Trooper Moore with the insurance companies, trying to get a settlement.
01:11:21	Thomas Moore	My insurance was $100,000 covered and that's what they paid out.
01:11:23		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: January 9, 2022 WCIV-TV THOMAS MOORE South Carolina Highway Patrol
01:11:25	Anne Emerson	That is money that is delivered to Trooper Moore, but before he deposits that check in his own bank account, he gets specific instructions from Alex Murdaugh.
01:11:38	Thomas Moore	When he asked me to bring him the check, I had no qualms about it. I gave it to him because I was told that's how it worked. He told me that it would have to be endorsed by me, and would have to be in some kind of frozen account.
01:11:55	Anne Emerson	Moore says that Alex says "We're gonna put it into an account that can't be touched until all of the litigation surrounding your accident is finished."

01:12:09	Anne Emerson	Months go by, he hears nothing about where his money is. He was running up debt and credit card bills, he would call and ask and was told the same story that he just needed to wait. Trooper Moore never stopped waiting. Trooper Moore never got that money.
01:12:33	Anne Emerson	That $100,000 check, it didn't go into a protected account. It went into the Forge account. That money went into the same account that Alex allegedly used for the Gloria Satterfield money.
01:12:49	Michael Virzi	It's unethical to deceive people, and when you start thinking you can get away with things and you start getting away with things, you start trying to get away with more things.
01:12:56		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: More than three years later, after the murders of Maggie and Paul, Trooper Moore discovers where his money went.

01:13:04	Anne Emerson	PMPED says that they found out that there were some irregularities going on in their law firm. It was money that had been misappropriated, they said, from clients' accounts as well as their own.
01:13:19	Thomas Moore	The Murdaugh Law Firm called me and said, "Look, Tommy. There's a problem. Your money's been taken, and it's going to be replaced. We're putting it back in the account. But, it was taken. It was taken by Mr. Murdaugh, and we're not going to hang you out to dry,"

01:15:03	Anne Emerson	What was happening behind the scenes was enormous in Alex Murdaugh's life. Partners of the PMPED law firm, that's Alex Murdaugh's law firm, the family law firm, they discovered that there was money missing. They say that there is a suspicious check that shows up on his desk and that money has been taken out of clients' and the firm's own accounts. And his brother and his fellow law partners confront him.

01:16:04		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: GREGG ROMAN Investigative Journalist

01:16:13	Anne Emerson	Then what happens is something that no one else could have ever predicted.
01:16:22	Drew Tripp	PMPED forces Alex to resign from his position with his own family's law firm based on his apparent embezzlement of funds from the law firm, and stealing of settlement money from clients.
01:16:38	Anne Emerson	This is a law firm that goes back more than a century. His own great-grandfather had actually founded this law firm.
01:16:49	Drew Tripp	Alex's now exposed misdeeds of stealing from clients and stealing from his law firm, he says his world was caving in that day the same way it had three months earlier when his wife and son had been killed.
01:17:08	D'Michelle Dupre	This is a massive fall, from Grace. Devastation. Alex has certainly never been in this position before. The family has never been in this position before. All of a sudden, everything has basically turned upside down.
01:17:28	Anne Emerson	There is so much happening at the same time, coming to a head for Alex Murdaugh in his life. Not only is he dealing with the double murders, he's dealing with lawsuits from the fatal boat crash. He's dealing with accusations of embezzlement from his own law firm. The State Law Enforcement Division's looking into the death of Stephen Smith based on information that they gathered during the investigation of Paul and Maggie Murdaugh's murders, and they are looking into Gloria Satterfield's death. To fall this hard and this fast for Alex Murdaugh was an incredible amount of pressure.

01:39:14	Gregg Roman	While it was despicable what Paul Murdaugh did the evening that Mallory Beach was killed, Alex Murdaugh was one hundred times more evil. He stole from people he was supposed to protect. He crashed his family's four generation legal dynasty and now he faces dozens of criminal acts because the people he was supposed to help he has cursed and he has ruined.

01:39:55	Anne Emerson	There's just so many investigations that we're still waiting for answers on. Every time we turn over one rock, we just find another rock to turn over.
